PLENARY by Siomon Gill

THAT'S (NOT) ME IN THE SPOTLIGHT: THE JOY OF STEPPING ASIDE
"Teaching", somebody once said to me, "isn't a job. It's a diagnosis." In medicine, a diagnosis is usually followed by procedures designed to make the patient better. Working on the same principle, in this talk I would like to consider whether this is applicable to the teaching profession too and to discuss what some of those procedures might be and to invite you to reflect on how you could use them to work on your own professional health and wellbeing.

WORKSHOPS

Jitka Dopitová: 5-minute activities

No matter if called warmers, fillers or coolers. What can be done in five minutes is what matters. The workshop offers a variety of activities to try out and adapt to the needs and levels of your students. Come and enjoy yourselves, entertain your brains and leave enriched with experience.

.Joe Veese: Five-Ten Activities for Teaching Vocabulary.

A new selection of games and activities—this time with a focus on presenting, drilling and using vocabulary items. Many of the games would make a useful warmup or review activity while others have a more conversational feel and can be used either to set up conversation-lessons or within the lesson itself. The focus will be on activities that are adaptable across a number of vocabulary areas.

Mgr. Lucie Čechová: Zamiluj se do kartiček
Připravte si kartičky jednou pro vždy! Vyždímejte z nich maximum a vytvořte si materiál, který použijete vždy a všude. Na praktickém semináři si zahrajeme spoustu kartičkových her, které nikdy neomrzí a nadchnou nejen žáky, ale i Vás. Proč? Protože žáci budou pracovat, bude je to bavit a Vy to budete moci celé sledovat nebo hrát s nimi... S kým se potkáme?

Charles Stewart: Teaching mix level and ability classes (A2-C2)

Mixed ability classes have become the norm in ELT, and it seems that we, as teachers, must cope with a greater range of mixed abilities within the same class nowadays. In this workshop, we will explore ways and tips for coping with Mixed Ability Classes and look at various strategies for differentiating activities within a coursebook, referencing the Cambridge Own It series.
